DESCRIPTION/OPTIONS: The 2018 Nissan Frontier SV is a rugged, off-road-ready pickup that combines durability with modern convenience. Powered by a robust 4.0-liter V6 engine, this 4x4 delivers 261 horsepower, ensuring you're ready for any adventure. Its high ground clearance and Bilstein off-road shocks make tackling tough terrains a breeze, while skid plates protect the undercarriage. Inside, the Frontier offers a comfortable cabin with supportive seats and intuitive controls, making it a pleasant companion for long drives. The PRO-4X trim boasts features like a locking rear differential and advanced off-road traction control, enhancing its capability on rugged paths. Whether you're exploring the backcountry or maneuvering through city streets, the 2018 Frontier PRO-4X stands as a reliable, versatile choice.
